

HP Service Plan Descriptions – United States and Puerto Rico

Service Agreement Type 005 - HP Post-Warranty Technical Support

Service Overview

HP post warranty technical support provides one (1) year of telephone support coverage for a HP or Compaq consumer product pre-installed software, pre-installed, product original operating system and HP Drivers.

HP post-warranty technical support provides access to HP Technical Support Agents for technical assistance on a product's operating system and pre-installed software. Technical support includes assistance with features and use, installation, configuration, troubleshooting and diagnosis.

Problem Assistance

HP provides assistance to resolve software or operating system problems, including assistance in setup, solving configuration issues and troubleshooting original, pre-loaded operating system and software technical problems.

Installation Support

Advisory support for customers who encounter difficulties while performing a product installation or require installation guidance will be provided.

Customer Responsibilities

The customer must adhere to and retain all original software licenses, upgrade license agreements, and license keys, and provide to HP upon request.

The Customer should maintain a current backup or copy of their operating system and all other applicable software programs and data prior to use of this service.

Limitations

Support is limited to HP and Compaq consumer Pavilion and Presario Desktop and Notebook products.

HP will make reasonable efforts to assist and return a users product to productivity and will be deem complete when the Customer has:

- Received instructions that assist in resolving the hardware and/or software problem;
- Received instructions on how to obtain a patch(es);
- Received notice that a software application problem is caused by a known, unresolved software bug;
- Been notified that the problem has been identified as a hardware repair problem;
- Been notified that the problem is corrected in a subsequent release of the product or software;

Or HP has extended reasonable effort to resolve the application problem.

This support is limited to telephone assistance and does not include the downloading of complete software packages or supervision of an installation from start to finish. Further actions by the customer may be required to resolve the problem.

This support does not include hardware repair or exchange. If the customer requests hardware repair additional fees will be payable to HP for any hardware service given.
