Dear _____,

Why do I tremble so? Why is my heart aflame? It is because I have longed for you, following you with my eyes, too shy to share my feelings.

Perhaps you have noticed me. But why should someone as glorious as you take notice of me? Because I am (a dance floor dervish / clever beyond belief / a lover of bunnies)? No. Pledge your heart to me because I love you, and will love you until (I get bored / the end of time / the new fall TV season begins).

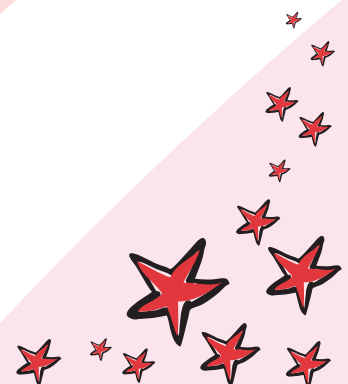

Do you love me? Or do you love me not? Love me? Love me not? Love me? Oh, the torture! Shall we ever be together? Will you ever know the soft caress of my (sweet lips / Irish setter's tongue / favorite towel)?

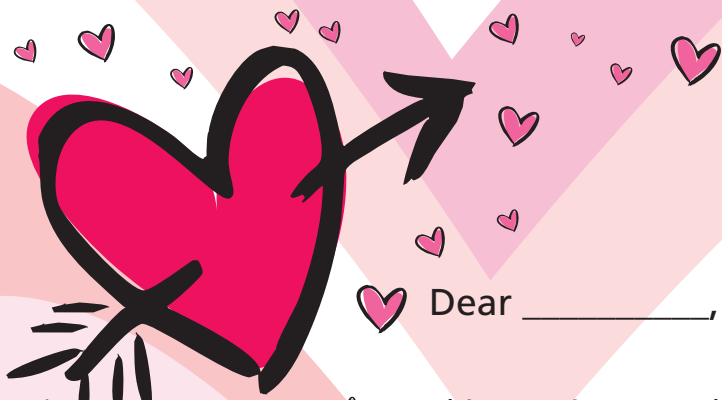

Could there be no greater pain than to love and not be loved in return? I can think of none, except the pain of (never seeing your sweet face again / a bad paper cut / shin splints). Alas, I throw my fate to the love gods above!

What can I do but yield to this passion that rules me? I would die a happy (man / woman) if I could just (kiss your lips / hunt the Great Alligator / knit mittens) just once.

Only you can relieve me from this torment. A thousand kisses I will one day bestow on you. Until then, I will (long for you / eat paste / wander restlessly).

Love,

Dear _____,

This morning, I awoke thinking of your (lovely image / splendid waffles / funny hairdo) and the memory of last night's meeting. Oh! Our many wonderful nights have shown me that you are surely the one for me.

You're the one I want, the one I want to (spend my life with / throw water balloons at / beat at bowling). When we're together, I can't tear my gaze away from you. The mere sound of your voice summons (deep feelings / the magical unicorn / strange gurgling noises) within me.

Before you blessed me with your radiant presence, I was (alone / a shell of a human / obsessed with checkers). Then you came along. Sweet, incomparable you—what an intoxicating effect you have on me! Oh hush. You know what I say is true.

In my heart, you have aroused something strange. Now, nothing other than (loving you / playing croquet / cowtipping) seems important anymore. Since you came into my life, I've looked forward to each day with you in my arms. You bring out a part of me that I never knew existed, a part that was (hidden deep inside / crunchy like peanuts / adorned with rhinestones).

Yes, I love you, for all these things and so much more. I give you my (heart / jelly donut / toothbrush) and I treasure you so much. Please tell me that you feel the same way.

Love,

Dear _____,

Memories of the first days of our love are still fresh in my mind—the whispering of autumn in the maples and your lovely face. Tenderly, you kissed me. And I knew those many years ago, as I still do today, that you were (the one for me / as pretty as a squirrel's tail / even better than cereal).

I once dreamt that I was without you. Oh, how empty a world it was! For me, living without you would be as impossible as the soul living without a song. Even a world without sunshine would be bright as long as (we're together / we have fireflies / the electric company keeps charging those astronomical rates).

Our two souls have become melded as one. If I had a star for every time you've made me smile, I'd (light up the whole night sky / sell them on e-bay / spread them on toast).

Over the years, our love has blossomed and grown into something (beautiful / hairy / fleecy). Through tears and smiles, laughter and heartache, you've been a part of my life. I can't imagine getting through the day without (hearing your voice / seeing your smile / cutting your toenails).

You are as dear to me as (life itself / my old sneakers / my lava lamp), now and forever.

Love,
